

Operation scheme

- New Data (transits) arrive from IDT in Time Interval chunks (~1 day)
- Transits are calibrated with the most recent calibrations
- New transit is compared with the accumulated data in Detection Algorithm
- Available historical transits are retrieved
- Alerts are classified using Gaia data
- If promising, sources are cross-matched with available catalogues and classified further
- Alerts get published

